"HARD-BOILED."

By Hal E. Roach.

Charley and his wife visit his mother. She sends him home for his rubbers. He gets caught in a downpour and his pants fill with water. He gives a birthday party for his mother, one of the guests being his bully brother. The bully gives his mother a washboard. Charley attempts to entertain them and take their picture but is unsuccessful. They start home in two cars. Charley gets in a fight with the bully and, aided by his other brother knock him cold. He brings him to by putting his head under a stream of water, only to knock him cold again.
